Company: Holding Textile Hermès

Location: Dubai

Category: healthcare-practitioners-and-technical

Mission Générale

As Demand Planner, you will be a key contributor in the structuring and management of all operations processes of the MEIA Business unit.

You will be the link between our Perfume & Beauty Headquarters based in Paris and the Dubai office.

Your main mission will be to build our forecasts with the central and local teams (on novelties and basics), ensure information sharing between HQ in Paris and Dubai teams and to track & ensure good consumption rate of our forecasts.

Information keeper, you will be the referee for all Operations topics between Headquarters and the local team.

Entrepreneur and solution oriented, you will be a key player in the improvement of our existing systems and processes in order to generate greater forecast accuracy and better analyses.
