It is important to note that this is not a western expatriate school and many students are local from the UAE. Combining the US core standards curriculum with a delivery through the philosophy of IB without the scope and sequence, the school blends the best of both worlds of a traditional American approach of text books and regular testing and a more student centred perspective. An IB world school status will retain the American element so students can graduate with a US diploma and if they meet with the criteria and IB diploma too. Advanced Placement course are also available. The School Offers: • Monthly tax free salary AED22000-24000 • Allowances for utility bills and excess baggage• International medical insurance is provided• Annual airfares• End of service gratuity• Local bus transportation• Two free places for dependent children• Accommodation is provided as part of the employment package; it is furnished and single occupancyIf you believe that this opportunity matches the ideals of your overseas teaching aspirations then please do not hesitate to contact your local Edvectus advisor today. We look forward to hearing from you.Your chances for interview selection are better if you are flexible on location preference across the UAE
