As part of our drive towards growth and excellence at DMU Dubai, we are looking to appoint a Lecturer/Senior Lecturer in Business and Management. Providing excellent teaching in the relevant areas of expertise and gaining positive student feedback is a core requirement and true for this role. Your teaching duties will include preparation and delivery of lectures and seminars, including the work required to ensure the module(s) under your leadership are administered with excellence.

Of particular interest are applicants who exhibit experience and expertise in and can teach one or more of the following:

Business ethics,

Corporate social responsibility and sustainability,

Project Management,

Leadership and Management,

Organisational behaviour and supply chain management.

We are looking for academics who have or aim to have a portfolio of research activities that offer a realistic prospect of publication in international refereed journals. Ideally your research portfolio should revolve around one or more of the areas highlighted above. (Senior Lecturer requirement.)

There will be opportunities to be an active citizen of the subject group and the faculty, to pursue your passion in any area of your interest beyond your assigned teaching duties, in engaging in research and scholarship, international collaborative partnerships, support on corporate/executive education and to work closely with local business communities.

Don't miss out on this exciting opportunity – apply now at dubaiofferz.com/#J-18808-Ljbfrr
