Audit The manager providing PPA services plays a critical role in accurately and objectively determining the fair value of assets and liabilities acquired in a business combination, supporting financial reporting requirements, and ensuring compliance with accounting standards and regulatory guidelines. Responsibilities Analysis and Valuation: Conduct a thorough analysis of the acquired company's tangible and intangible assets, liabilities, and contingent liabilities. Assess the fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities acquired in the business combination, including property, plant, and equipment, inventory, intellectual property, customer relationships, contracts, and goodwill. Utilize appropriate valuation methodologies and techniques to determine the fair value of assets and liabilities, such as DCF analysis, market comparables, cost approaches, and income approaches. Build financial models and sensitivity analysis to evaluate the impact of different assumptions on the purchase price allocation. Financial Reporting and Compliance: Prepare and document the purchase price allocation in accordance with relevant accounting standards (such as IFRS 3 or ASC 805) and regulatory requirements. Generate reports and schedules detailing the allocation of the purchase price among the acquired assets and liabilities. Collaborate with the company's finance and accounting teams to ensure accurate and timely disclosure of the purchase price allocation in the financial statements and footnotes. Provide support and documentation for external auditors and regulatory bodies during the audit or review process. Communication and Stakeholder Management: Communicate and explain the purchase price allocation methodology, assumptions, and results to internal stakeholders, including senior management, finance teams, and legal counsel. Collaborate with external stakeholders, such as the acquiring company's management, legal advisors, auditors, and valuation specialists, to ensure alignment and understanding of the purchase price allocation process. Address any questions or concerns raised by stakeholders regarding the purchase price allocation and provide additional analysis or information as needed. Assist in the preparation of investor presentations or disclosures related to the purchase price allocation. Ongoing Compliance and Monitoring: Stay updated on changes in accounting standards, regulations, and industry best practices related to purchase price allocation. Continuously monitor and assess the financial performance and value realization of the acquired assets to identify any potential impairments or changes in fair value. Support the company in performing periodic impairment tests and assessments of goodwill and other intangible assets, ensuring compliance with relevant accounting standards. It is a global consulting firm that delivers deep expertise, objective insights, a tailored approach and unparalleled collaboration. We help you confidently address challenges and opportunities in technology, finance, transformation, business process, risk, compliance, transactions and internal audit.
