Our clients are increasingly looking to us to help them plan for growth and analyse all aspects of their overall strategy, which can include inorganic growth. When you join our experienced M&A team, you'll be at the heart of that challenge, guiding clients through every stage of their transaction lifecycle, be it acquisitions, disposals, management buy-outs, buy-ins, fundraising, initial public offerings, takeovers, mergers and strategic reviews.

Responsibilities: Identifying opportunities, opening and leveraging relationships

Meeting the transaction timetable, ensuring quality on client deliverables, as well as engaging with counterparties and other advisers to ensure transaction milestones are met

Understanding the key business drivers as well as identifying, and managing key issues and risks through insights, factual conclusions and advice

Counsel junior colleagues, share knowledge, and take an active role in the growth and development of the whole team Requirements: As a minimum, a Bachelor's degree ideally in a finance related topic or similar from a reputable University

At least 2 to 4 years' experience in a M&A environment

Strong communication and presentation skills#J-18808-Ljbfrr
