A genuinely exciting opportunity has arisen at an elite, top-tier law firm in their Dubai office. I just had an interesting call with a partner (highly respected name in the market) in the Banking & Finance team, and they are looking for a lawyer to join their team between the 0-3 PQE bracket. If you are already in the region, that would be great, however the team are open to UK and/or US qualified lawyers seeking a move to Dubai. The firm work on some of the best mandates in the region! On top of that, the remuneration package is comfortably above-market rate. This is a unique opportunity for any banking & finance lawyer looking to make a step-up in their career.
