Apply Now

Company: Cybertexex

Location: United Arab Emirates

Category: healthcare-practitioners-and-technical

Cybertexex provides automated solutions for AML and watchlist screening and behaviour analytics tailored for digital businesses globally.

Right now we are looking for Quality Control Operator – an entry-level specialist who checks the quality of our automated systems while analysing and correcting graphic and numerical data. Your work will be a contribution to the new, safer world we're building!

Why would you like it here

Experience working in customer support or any related field would be a great asset to our team, however, no work experience is required. We are committed to providing you with all the necessary training and support to help you transition smoothly into your new role and become a valued member of our team;

You will receive opportunities for rapid career growth, including leadership positions and professional growth in any company department (in the testing, development, customer support, or training departments).

What do we expect from the ideal candidate

Advanced Arabic & Conversational English;

Proficient PC user;

Has a computer with a stable home Internet connection at high speed (above 50mbps);

Has required equipment (a laptop/PC and a headset) and a quiet place to perform tasks;

Has developed logical thinking skills and quickly adapts to changes;

Can navigate a large amount of information and is attentive to detail;

Not afraid of monotony.

Benefits:

Remote work (available for individuals residing in the UAE)

Cooperation in terms of the service agreement (can be signed electronically);

We will teach you everything you need to work in this position and guarantee regular support in the process;

Convenient work schedule (5 shifts per week) & a floating weekend that can be conveniently adjusted to your study schedule or personal life;

A transparent system of bonuses. The amount of remuneration directly depends on the time devoted to work, the speed of processing the applications, and the quality of the work performed (from the first month of employment, bonuses are provided based on the work results);

We are the service that works 24/7 without considering official holidays and weekends, but each employee has his or her own agreed schedule.
