SAP Sales & Distribution Consultant - IT Consulting - Abu Dhabi

Abu Dhabi, UAE

Skills required: SAP Sales & Distribution

I am engaged with a Big 4 Consulting business who are looking for an SAP Sales & Distribution Consultant to join them on a greenfield implementation project in Abu Dhabi. The successful candidate will be responsible for managing and optimizing the sales and distribution processes within an organization using SAP's SD module.

This role involves collaborating with various departments to understand business requirements and configuring the SAP SD module to support sales order processing, pricing, billing, and delivery functions.

Key responsibilities include analyzing business processes, designing and implementing SAP SD solutions, conducting system testing, and providing user training and support. You will also ensure data integrity, troubleshoot issues, and participate in system enhancements and upgrades.

I am only looking to speak to candidates who are available at short notice.
