ServiceNow Architect| Braintrust Abu Dhabi

Braintrust is the first decentralized Web3 talent network that connects skilled, vetted knowledge workers with the world's leading companies. The community that relies on Braintrust to find work are the same people who own and build it, ensuring the network always serves the needs of its users, instead of a centrally-controlled corporation. And because the community of knowledge workers and contributors earns ownership and control of Braintrust through its native BTRST token for their contributions to the network and its growth, new Talent and jobs have participated in the network at record speeds.

Open Assembly is actively seeking Certified Technical Architects to contribute to new and exciting projects in 2024.
