Persona Design Limited are Recruiting! UX/UI Designer – Join Our Creative Revolution!

Location: Newcastle-upon-Tyne / Remote, United Kingdom Hours: Part-time / Flexi-time.

Term: 6 month contract with potential to extend. Sector: AI SaaS Platform Development for Creative Industries Salary: £35k - £52k annual salary at 0.2 FTE About Us: Persona Design is a start-up business on a journey to transform the use of AI in the creative industries. We're developing a pioneering software to help creatives and their clients form a cohesive and practical solution to identify the needs and requirements of their ultimate audience. All based on a comprehensive repository of consumer data. Intrigued? Come join us in shaping the future! The Role: We're searching for a visionary UX/UI Designer who lives and breathes design and enjoys creating seamless experiences. Your role is to thoughtfully produce wireframes and high-fidelity designs that don't just sit pretty, but actively inform discussions around potential integrations and market acceptance. You'll be working on our design strategy, transforming the theoretical into the tangible and the obscure into the obvious. Responsibilities: Craft wireframes that not only map out UX around potential features and workflow but also understand the importance of smooth, effortless user experiences. Elevate wireframes to high-fidelity designs, creating a visual lexicon that becomes the cornerstone of our product's market positioning and integration discussions.

Collaborate with our product teams, ensuring design and functionality perform perfectly.

Serve as an ambassador of user experience, championing intuitive design across every corner of our platform. Be a relentless seeker of innovation, always on the lookout for potential improvements that could enhance our platform's usability and appeal.
