GVC is assisting an esteemed hospital in the United Arab Emirates with the expansion of their veterinary professional team and is seeking to hire new nurses.

Dubai is a global hub for expatriates, offering tax-free income, luxurious living, diverse career opportunities, and a vibrant cultural scene.

This hospital is known for its extensive history and size, the center caters to a diverse clientele, handling a wide spectrum of primary, referral, and emergency cases. It often serves as the final destination for particularly challenging cases, emphasizing the importance of maintaining the highest standards of veterinary care and customer service to achieve optimal outcomes for clients. Their vision is ambitious yet clear: to lead a new era of veterinary care in the region by establishing the first dedicated, world-class referral and emergency center in the UAE.

With a team of approx 40 members this hospital is looking to expand its nursing team, the nurses are responsible for managing the surgical day, handling tasks such as preparing, monitoring, and overseeing the recovery of surgical patients. Primary responsibilities include placing IV catheters, collecting blood samples, performing dental scale-and-polish procedures, conducting dental and some other x-rays, and discharging routine patients. Additionally, assist in anesthesia. to be considered for this position you will need to be RCVS registered or equivalent.

A standard day shift week involves five working days. Four weekdays (now Mon-Fri in the UAE), and one weekend day (Sat or Sun). Your weekend day and day off in the week are set - so you have the same days off every week. A standard workweek is 40-44 hours

There will also be mixed roster of night work and day work which can allow up to 4 months off per year.

Each day presents unique challenges and you will be fully integrated and supported within the existing nursing team.

English is a widely spoken language in UAE, so local language skills are not necessary.

These are a long term/permanent vacancies, please do not apply if you are only looking for locum/temporary work.

In addition to being part of a supportive and professional team, you'll enjoy various benefits, including: A competitive salary of 13K - 14.5K AED per month (includes accommodation and travel allowances)

CPD Allowances: 500aed a year and selected CPD's locally

Full time role – A standard workweek is 40-44 hours

Relocation Allowance

Additional Benefits to include medical insurance

Annual Leave entitlement - 20 working days PLUS 11-12 Public holidays. To be considered for this role you will be registered with the RCVS and you must have the following or clearly be able to demonstrate your suitability for the advertised position should your application not meet the employer requirements.

This role is advertised by Global Veterinary Careers who operate as an employment business and emplacement agency.
